

There are lots of interesting words in the story- brazen, ingenious, consolingly, what do they mean? Get a dictionary and write down their definition.

Retell the story from the point of view of one of the seagulls.

The lunch was 'devoured' by the seagulls. Can you make a list of words which show how different people eat their food.

Find out the weight of different items in your lunch. What is the total weight?

Choose two types of sandwich and make a Venn diagram to show which like/don't like each of them.

Plan a healthy lunch for Mr Grinling. Try to include a food from each group.

Design a device to stop the seagulls attacking Mr Grinling's lunch. What could you use? How would it work?

Design some different outfits that Mr Grinling can wear in the Winter and Summer.

Can you design and make a working lighthouse? Can you make the lights flash or rotate?

