

Rainbow Slow Writing Example

The Swamp

Up ahead, the swamp sat almost silently. Every now and then, a strange gurgling noise could be heard.

Peter (now on his own) stepped forward. Cautiously, he peered through the bushy leaves to take a closer look. Was it safe to keep going? He had no choice. If he went back, he would probably be attacked by the wolves that were chasing him.

Feeling afraid, the frightened boy began to walk across the hard parts of the swamp. Glug! Gurgle! Gloop! His feet began to sink into the squelching, decaying, muddy water.

Extra Challenge:

Your red sentence must include two adjectives in it.

Your blue sentence should include an adverbial at the beginning, e.g. Slowly,

Your green sentence should include a simile, e.g. the water looked like green jelly.

Your yellow sentence must end with an exclamation mark.